Achtergrond:

Flamenco meets Jazz on the big stage. The fire of flamenco cante (voice), palmas (clapping), guitar and cajón, is taken to another level through colorful orchestration and the dynamic range of the Big Band.

In this symbiosis, characteristic flamenco harmony and rhythms serve as template for improvisation. Palmas, jaleos (Ole!, vámonos!..) and Phrygian chords provide a fresh folkloric context, launching jazz solos in a new direction.

The flamenco element is vigorously delivered by some of the scene's acclaimed figures: Maria Marin, Pablo Martinez (cante/palmas), Jeff Heijne (guitar) and Miguel Hiroshi (cajón/percussion). Orchestrating around this effervescent core is an exceptional Big Band, directed by Hispano-Dutch composer, arranger and project leader, Bernard van Rossum.
